TIPRO's

81st Annual Convention

February 22-24, 2027

Austin, Texas

TIPRO's 81st Annual Convention

Against a backdrop of policymaking and the 90th Regular Texas Legislative Session, the Texas Independent Producers and Royalty Owners Association (TIPRO) in 2027 will bring together members, industry leaders, executives and decision-makers for another memorable and impactful Annual Convention in Texas' capital city.

TIPRO's 2027 Annual Meeting will look forward to the future of oil and gas drilling and development in the state of Texas, exploring key opportunities and addressing challenges facing Texas energy producers and royalty owners. Presenters at the event will cover the largest priorities for the Texas oil and gas industry, including those being tackled by state legislature through new energy legislation and proposed laws.

In addition to the thought-provoking discussions and industry insights from TIPRO's distinguished line-up of speakers, TIPRO's Annual Convention also will allow for plenty of time for networking with other members of TIPRO and industry colleagues.

TIPRO Convention Schedule and Capitol Call-Up

TIPRO's Annual Convention will start with a welcome reception on Monday, February 22, followed by a full day of speakers and the chairman's dinner on Tuesday, February 23.

Attendees will also have the opportunity to join TIPRO for meetings with elected officials and staff of the Texas House and Senate at the state capitol during the morning of February 24 as part of TIPRO's legislative call-up. This grassroots event is held in conjunction with the association's annual convention and is an integral part of the association's impact on policy.

These conversations with state lawmakers, led by TIPRO, are especially important to help inform our state leaders about the importance of oil and natural gas development. The call-up also allows TIPRO members time to speak directly with both their state representatives and key committee members about policy considerations impacting Texas producers and royalty owners.
